5 game ideas that involve collaboration and use the following format:

[Game name] is a [category of] game in which [the players or their avatars] [do or compete or collaborate for some goal] by [using tools the game provides them].

1. [Common Thread] is a [collaborative card] game in which [players] [try to preserve a message as rumors spread around the circle] by [giving the other players insider information].
  2. [Sync Fast] is a [collaborative card] game in which [players on a team] [work together to eliminate their opponent's cards] by [stacking strategically on top of them].
  3. [Mind the Hive] is a [collaborative board] game in which [a group of worker bees] [must repair a disrupted colony before the queen wakes up]. This is achieved by [drawing cards and claiming as many open honeycomb spaces as possible before it's too late].
  4. [Floodline] is a [collaborative card] game in which [players] [must keep their town from flooding] by [ stacking barrier cards and sharing limited resources].
  5. [Card Castle] is a [collaborative dexterity card] game in which [the players are architects] [and are told how and where they can add regular game cards to a central card tower]. This is done with the use of various [action cards before the tower blows over].
